

Fort Pillow State Historic park 2003 Spring Events

Admission to all events is free and open to the public. For further information, please contact the Fort Pillow park staff at (731) 738-5581.

February 15 (Saturday): meet at the museum at 8:00 am to join us for a guided bird count hike to participate in the Great American Backyard Bird Count. Please wear sturdy shoes. Bring binoculars and bird guides if you have them. For more information about the hike, contact the park office. To learn more about the Great American Backyard Bird Count, visit the Birdsource website <http://www.birdsource.org>

March 8-9 (Saturday and Sunday): Come to the park as we host the 19th Century Living History Weekend. We invite you to walk through the reenactors' camps at the museum to get a glimpse into what everyday life was like for the civilians that lived in this area during the Civil War period.

April 12-13 (Saturday and Sunday): We invite you to bring the entire family out to enjoy our Civil War Living History Weekend. Come to see what camp life was like for the soldiers of the Civil War: watch demonstrations of cavalry, artillery, and infantry; and learn more about the April 12, 1864 Battle at Fort Pillow.

Memorial Day Weekend: Join us at the park for a weekend of programs and presentations—something for everyone. This weekend kicks off our Summer Programming with daily activities planned for visitors including guided hikes, crafts, games, historical talks and tours, demonstrations, junior rangers, and more. Summer programming concludes with Labor Day weekend. Contact the park office for a copy of the upcoming week's schedule.
